

A one day seminar was held to commemorate International Women's Day on 8th March 2013 at Nagaland University, Kohima Campus.

The seminar was held with the theme "Celebrating the Indigeneity of Naga Women" keeping in view the urgent need for honest discourses on gender issues in general and violence against women in particular and also to create gender awareness among teachers.

Two topics were deliberated: "Celebrating the Indigeneity of Naga Women" and "Recognition and Elimination of Sexual Harassment against Women in Institutions of Higher Education."

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Guest Prof A. Lanunungsang, pro-Vice Chancellor, NU, Kohima Campus emphasized on the need for men and women to respect one another and work as one in order to create a peaceful world that is environmentally friendly, socially accommodating, economically sustainable and politically stable.

The other resource persons were Mrs. Visakhonü Hibo, Principal, japfü Christian College and Mrs. Chubatola Longkumer, Principal, Kohima College.
